Group Art Based Coaching Circles

How it works?

Every 3 months, you join a live creative group online or in-studio—new media, fresh energy, and the power of being seen.

What It Is

Quarterly group sessions for experiential art practice under therapeutic guidance. Each introduces new materials and creative methods while deepening reflective presence.

- Try new therapeutic art tools together.
- Share, reflect, and build resilience you can use in life and work.
- “Your story becomes powerful when it’s witnessed and celebrated.”

‘Art based coaching reconnects us where words end.’

—Prof. Hildrun Rolff

Frequency: Once every 3 months – May, Sep, Dec 2026 & Mar 2027

Duration: 45 min guided session + optional open studio/reflection time

Format: In-studio or livestream online

Why It Matters

Participants witness and support one another’s creative process—turning individual insight into collective grounding.

Through color, movement, and dialogue, you learn to embody empathy, regulation, and Art-Based Coaching’s essential for client and coaching work alike.

Here’s the list of benefits:

- Connection: Learn empathy through shared stories
- Integration: Turn insight into embodied experience
- Renewal: Leave each session centered and inspired

Through shared creation and reflection, art becomes a living dialogue. You create, witness, and are witnessed. That’s where growth happens.”

Frequently Asked Questions

01 Do I need art experience?

No. This isn't about artistic skill but self-expression. Every exercise is guided—you'll discover how art helps make your inner world visible.

02 How is this different from a regular coaching or vision board workshop?

Unlike goal-based workshops, Biography-Based Coaching begins within your personal story. It reveals patterns, emotions, and strengths so real transformation—not just motivation—emerges.

03 I'm in transition or feeling stuck. Can this help?

Yes. You'll uncover unconscious patterns and rediscover purpose through reflection, art, and body awareness. Expect clarity and renewed confidence to move forward.

04 Do I need to be a therapist to join?

No therapy background is required. Anyone can join to grow personally or gain tools to support others. Graduates may integrate what they learn into coaching, teaching, or leadership practices.

05 Is this therapy or coaching?

It's coaching with therapeutic tools—focused on awareness, growth, and authentic action rather than diagnosis or clinical treatment.

06 What will I experience in the 5-Day Future Art Lifeline?

A guided personal retreat using art, movement, and reflection to explore your life story. You'll leave with insight, clarity, and a personal biographical art map to continue your growth.

07 Can I join online?

Yes. Our hybrid format allows participation on-site or online with live facilitation and access to full recordings.

08 What qualification will I receive?

A Certificate (12 ECTS) recognising your training in Biography-Based Coaching with Therapeutic Art Tools.

09 What's the biggest outcome?

A renewed sense of purpose and tools to transform both your own and others' life stories through art, compassion, and insight.
